

A Place of safety for all, proud to offer sanctuary to people fleeing violence and persecution

Harrogate District of Sanctuary is part of the National City of Sanctuary Movement

Our aims are:

1. To create an environment where refugees and asylum seekers feel safe, welcome and included; valued for what they bring to the community and supported to become independent and integrated into the life of the community.
2. To raise awareness, locally, about the issues faced by refugees and asylum seekers, to campaign for a humane asylum system nationally and to counter the negativity that surrounds this area, by balanced presentation of the facts

You can become a friend and supporter of HDS, or if you would just like to join us as a volunteer please see below application form.

As a paid up member you will receive invitations to our open events, a regular newsletter or update email, copies of annual reports and invitations to the AGM. Membership also confers voting rights at HDS meetings, and eligibility to be nominated to the committee
